Re: Gursewak Singh v Lintech Electric Inc., et al
United States District Court EDNY 18 CV 5780

Dear Magistrate Judge Bloom:

I am writing to reply to the letter submitted by defendants' counsel dated July 11, 2022.

The defendants admittedly stole from 200 workers their wages and among them is this plaintiff. They are not victims of a witch-hunt but perpetrators of an egregious wrong.

Defendants were deposed once but no records had yet to be produced. It was only after that deposition that they produced almost all of the records. That is why Magistrate Judge Gold directed defendants be deposed once again.

Most disturbing is the fact that counsel neither admits nor denies they knew of the NYSAG investigation and settlement during the time this case has been pending and mediation was being conducted by Your Honor, if not sooner.

Respectfully submitted,

JONATHAN SILVER
